Komachi See ♡

Hi!! Thank you for purchasing a copy of "Kijima-kun's Hospitality".

The "Kijima" series reached its 5th volume!! I'm so grateful I have nothing but words of thanks for the readers and everyone who supported me every step of the way!!

Thank you so very, very much!!

When I first started drawing, I never imagined I would be allowed to continue for this long. It's all thanks to those of you who expressed your love for the red-eyed Kijima-kun, and to all of you who cheered me on. I thank you from the bottom of my heart!!

This time the cover illustration was Japanese-themed. To match it with the story, I decided to challenge myself with drawing yukata ♪ The last four covers had them in uniforms, so it feels pretty refreshing, right? The design is a ribbon-shape, too- ♪ I think it's obvious that it's a new book, but what do you think? I did my best to include a candied apple, too (lol), I hope you were able to enjoy it.

Finally, Subaru's Family made their debut in the manga! The story centers on Tachibana-kun visiting Subaru's house, and how he manages to have his wild delusions in each and every place... (lol)

Tachibana-kun is wearing different glasses than normal this time, but I accidentally drew his usual glasses for one whole chapter. Redrawing them was a pain- (lol)

At first, I had planned for Subaru's brother to have the same face, but my editor told me, "It's fine if he's handsome," so he became handsome.

and he looks good that way (lol) And so it became that Subaru takes after his mother, and his brother takes after their father. During the serialization, it seems his father was popular. It's too bad I wasn't able to give him more scenes... I think it would be nice to draw a story with Oni-san as the main character though. He doesn't even have a name yet...

but I hope you can look forward to it-!

Unfortunately, Gou-chan didn't get a chance to appear this time... I love Gou-chan ♡ Readers who think the same way, did I make you feel lonely...? Allow me to apologise (lol)

The next volume will feature Gou-chan as the main character!!

Of course, Subaru will also make an appearance! As will Tachibana and the Student Council President ♪ So please look forward to it! ♡

I'll be happy if we were also able to meet in the next volume too.
